A BITTER FIGHT

Unioned Interests Have Big Fund to Control Next Presidential Nominations.

Washington, April 4.—President Roosevelt has taken the openly against the combination of corporations and men, who are charged by with a conspiracy to dehis policies by controlling both the national convention next year.

He is out to fight and he wants the public to know it. He is convinced that an underhanded campaign has already been started by the other side to place in the White house as his successor a man who will serve the combination and not the public.

But Mr. Roosevelt has more to base his convictions on than the mere opposition of such men as Harriman and Rockefeller to his most public rated policies. He has information which can not be mentioned that they have elected their organization are at work with promise of success that give them arrangement.

In the way the President said this out is sensational interesting in the extreme. There was recently a dinner. The diners included many of the leading black manipulators and coordination magnates of the United States, and several politicians. One of them is said to be Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania. He told of the time that had been formed the work already accomplished. He said that a fund of a million dollars had been raised to defeat the administration's forces in the coming presidential fight. More money would be forthcoming were needed. Several of the men present had been in into the confidence of leader. Senator Penrose, said, explained to them purpose and force of the movement. Among the men whom Penrose talked was who believed in President Roosevelt and what he has attempted. This man informed President.

President knows exactly who the diners were; what was said, and is informed respecting the plans of those who have the combination him and the means by they expect to carry out schemes.

As he knows the danger and not fancied, determined to start the fight once to prevent the men people from being

A Sad Mission

J. V. Corder, of Spokane, Wash., a former prominent citizen of this county, left for his home Monday morning after consigning to Union cemetery the remains of his beloved wife and companion. The funeral occurred Wednesday of last week but Mr. Corder remained several days to look after the placing of a tombstone and spend a few days with his father-in-law, Wm. Kaiser, C. J. Fitzsimmons and G. A. Lacy, west of town. This last sad affliction struck Mr. Corder heavily and he left here Monday in sad and broken spirits. Surely Providence has dealt severely with this good man, who has been visited by one affliction and misfortune after another until he almost feels the burden unbearable, yet the Lord has never sent a great sorrow without added strength to bear it and thus when he thinks of the well-filled family lot at the cemetery he has only to let his mind turn heavenward to see there a loving group ready to welcome him when his days are finished here. His son, Ad, a promising young man of 22 was laid to rest in the family lot only last October. Mr. Corder and remaining children have the deepest sympathy of a large circle of loyal friends in their irreparable loss and their sincere wish that the sun of their joy and hope may not become dimmed again for many years but that they will find in each other and in their mission to humanity a complete and useful life with a joyful, united family in the world to come.

Boats of Express Train Speed are Promised Soon

Col. Henry T. Mott, a member of the board of managers of the Manker-Heavener Navigation Company, which has patents covering all points of importance relating to concave hulls for use in the construction of motor boats, as well as ocean liners, said last week.

"I have read a description of another motor boat to be constructed on the concave hull idea, and wish to state emphatically that if anyone contemplates using ideas owned by our company, they will be sadly disappointed. We have twenty-three patents covering concave hulls of the hydrocurve system, both in the United States and Europe, and Mr. C. A. Manker, president of our company, who is the patentee, has covered all points involved so that we do not expect any one will attempt to steal our invention. We have already tested our boats and have beaten all previous records for speed and will make our next test here at St. Louis in May or June, or as soon as our new engines can be installed, as those we used in former trial tests were defective. Notwithstanding this fact, however, we made thirty-three miles an hour against all odds and will come up the river this spring at a pace that will put St. Louis in the lead on the navigation question. This invention applied to ocean-going vessels, will lay the commerce of the world at our feet, and insure more than 1,000,000 population to St. Louis.

Will be no Railway Strike.
Chicago, Ill., April 4.—The difference between the western railroads and the members of the Order of conductors and of the Brotherhood of railway trainmen were adjusted to-day. The men abandoned their demand for a nine-hour work day, and the railroads made an advance over the previous propositions in the pay of baggagemen, flagmen and brakemen of $1.50 per month. The original demands of the men were for an increase of 12 per cent, and for a working day of nine hours. The managers offered an increase in pay of 10 per cent and declined to grant the nine-hour day.

Out of Sight
"Out of sight, out of mind" is an old saying which applies with special force to a sore, burn or wound that's been treated with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's out of sight, out of mind and out of existence. Piles too and chilblains disappear under its healing influence. Guaranteed by P. H. Franklin Druggist, 25c.

Alton Railroad to be Ousted

Gov. Deneen and Atty. Gen. Stead of Illinois are hot after the C. & A. Railway and have brought onster proceeding. They consider that Mr. Harriman's testimony in regard to watered stock in the road is sufficient ground to secure a conviction. Laws of Illinois are very strict in this respect and it will be remembered that Mr. Harriman admitted raising the capital stock without a corresponding added value of property.

Another Victory for M. V. C.

The inter-collegiate debate at Stewart Chapel Friday night between William Jewell College and M. V. C. was won by the latter. The subject was "Government ownership of railroads." E. S. Hudson, W. F. Bradley and E. K. McGinnis represented M. V. C. Saturday morning the Missouri Valley students faculty and visitors celebrated the victory with an appropriate and rousing demonstration on the square.

Promptness Necessary

It may surprise some of our readers to know that the Republican is run at an average expense of $10 daily. Thanks to the hearty patronage of the people of Saline we have been able to more than meet our bills at all times, but now that material and labor is constantly climbing we are forced to be more strict in our collections and therefore kindly ask those who can do so to renew promptly and those who do not want the paper longer to notify us promptly. We are perfectly willing to wait on those who for some reason find it necessary to ask for time, but fortunately the man is hard to find now who hasn't the "extra dollar."

Getting Pointers

R. Excell Fry, of M. V. C., attended the Presbytery meeting at Bowling Green last week, from there he went to Louisiana, Mo., to fill an appointment and then went to Decatur, Ill., to hear a debate on the question, "Resolved that the United States should subsidize the Merchant Marine." This same question will be debated here on May 16th, between M. V. C. and the James Milliken University of Decatur, and as the Milliken boys are getting some early drilling on the subject it was thought advisable that the Missouri Valley also get a few pointers.

Lexington Presbytery

Warrensburg, Mo., April 5.—The Lexington presbytery of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, met in this city last night in three days' session. Fifty congregations were represented. Rev. Dalton of Oak Grove, the moderator, being unable to attend on account of illness, Rev. Buggins was elected moderator by acclamation. Rev. H. Clay Yates of this city was elected to represent the Lexington presbytery at the national presbytery, which meets at Dixon, Tenn., in May.
